John G. Thus, I have to rely on tradition, on basic knowledge and on artistic wisdom. JacobHess. Drachenhaus Maulbeerallee 4a Tel. No, he went into politics, and is about to get elected President, as you point. My aim, following the Kantian tradition, is universality, but I am aware, with Aristotle, that moral and political utterances are contingent, subject to different interpretations and applications based on economic interests and power structures. The last question is one for the student of literature rather than the musical historian.
